BankRI Appoints 3 Community Leaders to its Board of Directors

PROVIDENCE, R.I. – Bank Rhode Island (BankRI) has appointed three new members to its Board of Directors. Michael L. Hanna, Anthony Maione, and Lynn Moran were officially installed during the bank’s October board meeting.

Michael L. Hanna, CPA, has more than thirty years of public accounting experience, with expertise in mergers and acquisitions, tax, business advisory and consulting services. Michael is currently a Partner in Rhode Island Capital, LLC and Northeast Equity Partners, LLC. He is a retired Partner of Blum Shapiro P.C., Inc., the largest privately-owned CPA firm in New England, as well as a Principal of the former Sullivan & Company CPAs LLP. Michael is active in the local nonprofit community, serving on a variety of boards, including the Rhode Island Hospital Foundation Board of Governors. He and his family are residents of Wakefield, R.I.

A seasoned leader with thirty-five years of CEO experience, Anthony (Tony) Maione brings an extensive network of influence across Rhode Island’s business, nonprofit, and government sectors. He is the retired longtime President and CEO of United Way of Rhode Island, and has more than ten years’ experience in leadership development and in diversity consulting. He has served on advisory and trustee boards of colleges, state government, corporations, and healthcare companies. Tony and his family make their home in North Kingstown, R.I.

Lynn Moran is a Principal-owner of Moran Properties, and has more than three decades of experience in the real estate industry. Together with her husband, Steve Moran, they have developed and managed numerous properties in South County, such as The Residence at Saw Mill Square and The Meadows Professional Office Park. Lynn graduated from Boston College with a degree in Economics and holds an MBA from Southern Methodist University. In the community, she has served on the boards of CrossroadsRI, and various condominium associations. Lynn and her family live in North Kingstown, R.I.
