

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 25, 2016

Michael J. Cerio
Cerio Communications
(401) 743-8269
Michael@CerioCommunications.com

Christina Delngenis Named Manager of BankRI Centerville Road Branch in Warwick
Banking veteran spent previous three years managing BankRI's Woonsocket branch

PROVIDENCE, R.I. – Bank Rhode Island (BankRI) is pleased to announce that financial veteran Christina Delngenis has been named Branch Manager of its Centerville Road location in Warwick, one of three branches the Bank operates in the city. For the previous three years, Delngenis managed BankRI's Woonsocket branch.

As the Centerville Road Branch Manager, Christina is responsible for overseeing staff and the day-to-day operations of one of BankRI's most heavily trafficked locations. She also focuses on developing new business and individual banking customers and enhancing relationships with existing customers throughout Warwick and nearby communities.

"Christina has always demonstrated exceptional leadership skills and an impeccable understanding of our customers' needs, both on the business and personal banking sides," said Steven M. Parente, Senior Vice President, Director of Retail Banking for BankRI. "Our team is excited to have her lead our Centerville Road branch and bring her experience to serve the community."

Christina holds a Bachelor's degree in Communications from Rhode Island College and lives in Cranston with her husband, Frank, and their two children. Prior to joining BankRI, Delngenis led branches in the region for Citizens Bank and Sovereign Bank.

About Bank Rhode Island

Bank Rhode Island, a wholly owned subsidiary of Brookline Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ:BRKL), is a full-service, FDIC-insured financial institution headquartered in Providence, Rhode Island. The bank operates 19 branches and more than 55 ATMs throughout Providence, Kent and Washington Counties. For more information, visit www.BANKRHODEISLAND.com. You can also find BankRI on Facebook at www.Facebook.com/BankRhodeIsland.

###