BankRI Announces Promotions of 3 Financial Professionals

PROVIDENCE, R.I. – Within its Retail Banking Division, Bank Rhode Island (BankRI) has promoted three veteran staff members, recognizing their expertise and service to customers, and contributions to the bank.

Jody Cerullo has been promoted to Vice President, Customer Support Center Manager; Gisele Golembeski is Vice President, Managed Assets Department; and Noah Morrison named Branch Manager of BankRI's Pawtucket location.

With more than 20 years in the banking industry, Jody Cerullo manages the delivery of BankRI's customer service and technical support center for cash management, consumer and small business banking. He holds a certificate in Six Sigma for financial services and is integral to the bank's various digital service platforms. Prior to joining BankRI in 2008, Jody worked for Bank of America and gained valuable experience with merger acquisitions and retail banking management. A resident of Warwick with his wife and daughter, Jody held a NASCAR driver's license in auto racing and earned a Rookie of the Year Award.

As VP of the Managed Assets Department, Gisele Golembeski is responsible for the management of Consumer Loan and Residential Mortgage Collections for Brookline Bancorp, Inc., the multi-bank holding company for Brookline Bank and BankRI, and their subsidiaries. Her oversight includes Loss Mitigation and Workouts, Bankruptcy, Foreclosure, and Purchased Mortgage portfolio. Additionally, Gisele serves as compliance liaison for the Bancorp. Gisele holds a degree from CCRI and lives in Woonsocket with her husband. She has two adult children and is the proud grandmother to four young kids. In her spare time, she volunteers with the R.I. Saltwater Anglers Association, and is chair of its Election Committee.

Noah Morrison began his BankRI career in 2012, and now leads the bank's Pawtucket branch. As branch manager, Noah is responsible for day-to-day operations and oversees business development. He is also responsible for employee development and coaching, with a focus on ensuring the delivery of personalized customer service. Noah holds a degree in business management from the University of Phoenix, and volunteers his time in support of the Rejoice in Hope Catholic Youth Center in Cranston. He and his wife have two young sons and live in North Providence.
