This Zelle Network Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made between you (collectively, “Customer,” “you,” “your”) and Bank Rhode Island (collectively, “Bank,” “we,” “our,” “us”) and governs your use of the Service, and any transactions you may initiate with and/or request from us through the Service. By accepting this Agreement, you agree to be bound by the terms and conditions pertaining to the Service(s) that you use.

This Agreement supplements the terms of the other agreements you have entered into with us, including, but not limited to the Online Banking Agreement, eStatement Agreement, External Transfers Agreement, Funds Availability Policy, Privacy Notice, Credit Account Agreement, or Personal Deposit Agreement, as applicable, and related fee schedules and disclosures that govern the terms, conditions, and fees of your deposit account(s) with us, each as may be amended from time to time (such account agreements, fee schedules and related disclosures being referred to as an “Account Agreement” and collectively as the “Account Agreements”). The terms and conditions of your Account Agreements are incorporated by reference and made a part of this Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the terms of this Agreement and any Account Agreements the terms of this Agreement shall control as in regards to the provision of the Services outlined below. Any terms not defined in this Agreement shall have the meaning assigned to them in the Account Agreements. The provisions of this Agreement apply to customers who use the Services.

The Service allows you to perform banking functions relative to your accounts that are linked to the Service through the use of a personal computer or Internet-enabled Mobile Device. You agree to be bound by the terms and conditions pertaining to Online Banking and the specific terms and conditions applicable to any other associated services, including Online Bill Payment Service, Mobile Banking Service and Mobile Check Deposit Service, that you use as set out below.

By accepting the terms and conditions of this Agreement, you are electronically signing this Agreement, which shall be considered the same as your authorized written signature constituting your binding agreement to all of the terms, conditions, and notices contained or referenced in this Agreement.

Access to and use of the Service is contingent upon your acceptance of this Agreement. The Bank in its sole discretion, may restrict or deny your access to the Service until the Bank has determined that you have accepted or executed the applicable documentation and otherwise provided appropriate information and specifications for the use of the Service, and until the Bank has had a reasonable opportunity to receive and review the acceptance of this Agreement and activate the Service. In any event, you agree that your use of any Service shall, without any further action or execution or acceptance of any documentation, constitute your acceptance of and agreement to the Bank’s terms and conditions for the use of such Service as may be in effect as of the time of such usage, whether set forth in this Agreement or otherwise prescribed by the Bank. In order to activate the Service, you must have at least one account with us linked to the Service.

1. Description of Services

We have partnered with the Zelle Network (“Zelle”) to enable a convenient way to transfer money between you and others who are enrolled directly with Zelle® or enrolled with another financial institution that partners with Zelle (each, a “User”) using aliases, such as email addresses or mobile phone numbers (the “Service”). We will refer to financial institutions that have partnered with Zelle as “Network Banks.”

2. Eligibility and User Profile

behalf to use or access the Service, you agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. You represent that you have the authority to authorize debits and credits to the enrolled bank account.

You agree that you will not use the Service to send money to anyone to whom you are obligated for tax payments, payments made pursuant to court orders (including court-ordered amounts for alimony or child support), fines, payments to loan sharks, gambling debts or payments otherwise prohibited by law, and you agree that you will not use the Service to request money from anyone for any such payments.

The Service is intended for personal, not business or commercial use. You agree that you will not use the Service to send or receive payments in connection with your business or commercial enterprise. We reserve the right to decline your enrollment if we believe that you are enrolling to use the Service with your business account or to receive business or commercial payments. We further reserve the right to suspend or terminate your use of the Service if we believe that you are using the Service for business or commercial purposes, or for any unlawful purpose.

The Services remain in effect until they are terminated by you or Bank. You may cancel the Services at any time by notifying us of your intent to cancel by calling customer service at 866-422-6574. If you close your primary checking account, or there is no longer any eligible funding account linked to your Service, any unprocessed payments will be canceled. Upon your or our cancellation of your Services for any reason, you will have no further right or access to use the Services, and we will not access your accounts thereafter for any reason related to Zelle.

We reserve the right, subject to applicable law, to terminate your right to use the Service at any time and for any reason, including without limitation if we, in our sole judgment, believe you have engaged in conduct or activities that violate any of the Terms of this Agreement or the rights of Bank and/or our service provider, or if you provide us with false or misleading information or interfere with other users or the administration of the Service. We reserve the right to charge a fee for the use of the Service and any additional services or features that we may introduce. You understand and agree that you are responsible for paying all fees associated with the use of the Service.

This Agreement is subject to change from time to time. We will notify you of any material change. We will provide you with advance notice of any changes to the terms of this Agreement when required to do so by applicable law. Your continued use of the Service after we provide you notice of changes will indicate your acceptance of the revised Agreement. If a User sends you money using a different U.S. mobile number or email address that they may have for you (one that is not already enrolled), you will receive a message with instructions on how to enroll with Zelle.

7. Consent to Emails and Automated Text Messages

By participating as a User, you represent that you are the owner of the email address, mobile phone number, and/or other alias you enrolled, or that you have the delegated legal authority to act on behalf of the owner of such email address, mobile phone number and/or other alias to send or receive money as described in this Agreement. 8. Receiving Money; Money Transfers by Network Banks

Once a User initiates a transfer of money to your email address or mobile phone number enrolled with the Service, you have no ability to stop the transfer. By using the Service, you agree and authorize us to initiate credit entries to the bank account you have enrolled.

Most transfers of money to you from other Users will occur within minutes. There may be other circumstances when the payment may take longer. For example, in order to protect you, us, Zelle and the other Network Banks, we may need or Zelle may need additional time to verify your identity or the identity of the person sending the money. We may also delay or block the transfer to prevent fraud or to meet our regulatory obligations. If we delay or block a payment that you have initiated through a request for money, we will notify you.

If you are receiving a payment from a business or government agency, your payment will be delivered in accordance with both this Agreement and the procedures of the business or government agency that is sending you the payment.

9. Sending Money; Debits by Network Banks

You may send money to another User at your initiation or in response to that User's request for money. You understand that use of this Service by you shall at all times be subject to (i) this Agreement, and (ii) your express authorization at the time of the transaction for us to initiate a debit entry to your bank account. You understand that when you send the payment, you will have no ability to stop it. You may only cancel a payment if the person to whom you sent the money has not yet enrolled in the Service. If the person you sent money to has already enrolled with Zelle, either in the Zelle mobile app or with a Network Bank, the money is sent directly to their bank account (except as otherwise provided below) and may not be canceled or revoked.

In most cases, when you are sending money to another User, the transfer will occur in minutes; however, there are circumstances when the payment may take longer. For example, in order to protect you, us, Zelle and the other Network Banks, we may need additional time to verify your identity or the identity of the person receiving the money. If you are sending money to someone who has not enrolled as a User with Zelle, either in the Zelle mobile app or with a Network Bank, they will receive a text or email notification instructing them on how to enroll to receive the money. You understand and acknowledge that a person to whom you are sending money and who is not enrolling as a User may fail to enroll with Zelle, or otherwise ignore the payment notification, and the transfer may not occur.

The money may also be delayed or the transfer may be blocked to prevent fraud or comply with regulatory requirements. If we delay or block a payment that you have initiated, we will notify you.

Effective: July 9, 2021

We have no control over the actions of other Users, other Network Banks or other financial institutions that could delay or prevent your money from being delivered to the intended User.

10. Send Limits

Money transfers and/or debits by Network Banks made via the Services are subject to the limit(s) described in this Section 10, in addition to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, and/or any applicable Account Agreements, or as otherwise described in other communications we may provide to you from time to time. Certain limits may apply based on federal restrictions on the number of Internet (via Computer or Mobile Device) transfers from savings Deposit Accounts (including Money Market Accounts) processed in a statement cycle. Money transfers and/or debits by Network Banks made via the Zelle Services are subject to the following limit(s):

- | | |

| b. Every 24 Hours | $500.00 or 15 Transactions |
| c. Every 7 Days | $2,500.00 or 30 Transactions |

For non-Zelle services, different transaction limits may apply; consult the terms and disclosures for the applicable product or service for more information.

11. Requesting Money

You may request money from another User. You understand and acknowledge that Users to whom you send payment requests may reject or ignore your request. Neither we nor Zelle guarantee that you will receive money from other Users by sending a payment request, or that you will receive the amount that you request. Neither we nor Zelle accept responsibility if the other User rejects or ignores your request, or sends you an amount that is less than you request. If a User ignores your request, we may decide or Zelle may decide, in our sole discretion, that we will not send a reminder or repeat request to that User.

By accepting this Agreement, you agree that you are not engaging in the business of debt collection by attempting to use the Service to request money for the payment or collection of an overdue or delinquent debt; to request money that is owed to another person; or to collect any amounts that are owed pursuant to a court order. You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Zelle, its owners, directors, officers agents and Network Banks from and against all claims, losses, expenses, damages and costs (including, but not limited to, direct, incidental, consequential, exemplary and indirect damages), and reasonable attorney's fees, resulting from or arising out of any request for money that you send that is related to overdue or delinquent amounts.

You agree to receive money requests from other Users, and to only send requests for legitimate and lawful purposes. Requests for money are solely between the sender and recipient and are not reviewed or verified by us or by Zelle. Neither we nor Zelle assume responsibility for the accuracy or legality of such requests and do not act as a debt collector on your behalf or on behalf of the sender of a request for money.

We reserve the right, but assume no obligation, to terminate your ability to send requests for money in general, or to specific recipients, if we deem such requests to be potentially unlawful, abusive, offensive or unwelcome by the recipient.

12. Transaction Errors

If you have questions about your Zelle transactions, you should first contact the sender (if you received the transfer) or recipient (if you sent the transfer) and attempt to resolve the issue. If you still have questions or suspect an error related to a Zelle transaction posted to your deposit account, contact our Customer Service Center at 877-422-6574 or write to: Bank Rhode Island P.O. Box 9488, Providence, RI 02940-9488.

13. Your Liability for Unauthorized Transfers

You are responsible for all transfers that are authorized using any username, password, or other access code or authentication feature you use for the Services. If you permit other persons to use the Service or your username, password, or other access codes or authentication feature, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize. Please refer to our Regulation E Disclosure contained in our Personal Deposit Account Agreement, referenced in Section 1, above and incorporated herein by reference, and our Electronic Banking Account Statement Disclosure Agreement.

You will be liable for unauthorized transactions using the Services to the extent allowed by applicable federal and state law, this Agreement, and any other agreement applicable to the specific bank product or service affected by the unauthorized transactions.

Contact us IMMEDIATELY if you believe that any username, password, or other access code or authentication feature you use for the Services has been lost or stolen or used without your permission. Telephoning us at 877-668-2265 is the best way of minimizing your possible losses.

14. Liability for Failure to Complete Transfers

In using the Service, you are requesting that we attempt to make payments for you from your Account. If the payment instruction cannot be completed for any reason associated with your Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Account, or the payment instruction would exceed the credit or overdraft protection limit of your Account, to cover the payment), the payment instruction may or may not be completed. In certain circumstances, we may advance funds to your Account to cover an electronic debit. We may also attempt to debit your Account a second time to complete the payment instruction. In some instances, you will receive a return notice from us. In each such case, you agree that:

- a. You will reimburse us immediately upon demand of the amount of the payment instruction if the payment has been delivered but there are insufficient funds in, or insufficient overdraft credits associated with, your Account to allow the debit processing to be completed; and
- b. We are authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency pursuant to applicable law.
